

Hanging Cage
wood, wire, iron, copper, zinc 12x17x10,5 cm, 2020

philip angermaier

My works explore the boundaries and connections between printmaking, sculpture and installation. They open up the fields and bring them into a dialog, an interaction. A transformation of an object brings it into another relationship within itself and its surrounding.